Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix's (PVGP) Passport to Elegance is more than your typical fundraising party with delectable catered food and a fully-stocked open bar. It's a top notch luxury soiree held in an 18,000 square foot airplane hangar featuring rare vintage and exotic automobiles, aircraft, and motorcycles from some of the most renowned collectors in the world.

Susan Gera, who co-chairs the event with Eric Zagrocki, has been involved with Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix since 2007. "The sheer number of returning volunteers these events get speaks volumes for what a fantastic organization this is and what these events and charities mean to people," Gera said. "As the co-chair of Passport to Elegance, I get a chance to put on a one-of-a-kind luxury fundraising bash at a unique venue and introduce a new audience to what the PVGP does."

Through 2018, over $5 million in funds have been raised through all the Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix events to help provide residential care, treatment, and support for autistic and intellectual/developmental disabled individuals in western Pennsylvania.
